100 WAYS TO SAY IT IN BUSINESS ENGLISH

FOREWORD

This is an abridged version of my book, 400 Ways to Say It in Business English, which I started writing when a student asked me for a list of “phrases to say” in different business situations. He had gone through a few English courses and teachers had always taught him the same functions. “I’ve learnt how to ask someone to open a window many times,” he said, “but no one has told me what to say when I have to give bad news.”

100 Ways to Say it in Business English is for people who want a quick guide on what to say in common situations. Five examples have been written for each function to give readers the opportunity to find the phrase that suits their needs best.

All in all, a choice of five hundred sentences that, I hope, can help you speak business English more effectively.

The full book, 400 Ways to Say It in Business English, can be bought at www.amazon.com. It’s more detailed, because it includes four hundred situations, with sixty-two that refer exclusively to telephoning. In total, two thousand expressions and examples to help students with their business English.

What's your?

What's your e-mail?

Could I have your?

Could I have your office address please?

25. CORRECT MISUNDERSTANDING

There's a misunderstanding

I'm afraid there's been a misunderstanding. I said Mrs Figgs, not Mrs Pigs.

This isn't what I meant

This isn't quite what I meant. Sales diminished but didn't plummet.

I don't think you've understood

I don't think you've actually understood me. I am not against you.

It was not my intention

It was not my intention to offend you. I am sorry.

I'm sorry about the confusion

Jason, will you let Maria speak? She has important things to say.

28. KEEP A MEETING IN TRACK

That's another subject

Finance is another subject altogether. Now we'll just talk about sales.

We can't discuss that issue

We can't discuss that issue today. It's not on the agenda.

That's outside the scope

That's outside the scope of our meeting so we'll leave it for now.

Let's get back on track

Let's get back on track. We're wasting too much time.

We're digressing

We're digressing. I want to stick to the main subject.

29. COME BACK TO A TOPIC

Now, where were we?

Now, where were we? Yes, prime time ratings.

What were we saying?

What were you saying when Carol interrupted us?

As I was explaining

As I was explaining before lunch, higher prices don't always deter buyers.

Return to

Let's return to point five: Clay Corporation.

This leads us back to

This leads us back to the subject we were discussing yesterday.

30. POSTPONE AN ISSUE

We'll defer

We'll defer the matter till we have all relevant information.

Let's leave

Let's leave this issue aside for the time being.

It's too late to

Shall we leave the final decision for this afternoon's session?

Let's postpone

Let's postpone the discussion till everyone has arrived.

31. FOCUS ON THE MAIN ISSUE

The major

The only major problem we need to solve is absenteeism.

Our primary concern is

Our primary concern isn't only increased sales but better quality as well.

What is the real issue?

What's the real issue? Managers are not committed to their jobs.

The most important

The most important hurdle of this negotiation is to convince Mr Lewis.

We really need

We really need to look after our workforce.

32. EMPHASISE ON A POINT

This is a key issue

Labour relations are a key issue now.

I'd like to emphasise on

I'd like to emphasise on point three of my presentation.

This is highly significant

Norah's attitude is highly significant. She's certainly against us.

This is vital

Turning a profit this year is vital if we wish to survive.

It's imperative

It's imperative to solve this problem now.

33. PLAY DOWN A POINT

This is a minor issue

This is a minor issue. Price is the main concern.

This is of secondary importance

This is of secondary importance if we compare it with our real problem.

Who cares?

Who cares about PR when the company's on the brink of bankruptcy?

It's irrelevant

His view is irrelevant, completely worthless.

It's not significant

This matter is not significant at all. Let's move onto what is crucial.

34. SLOW DOWN A MEETING

Before we move on

Before we move on I believe we should hear Jackie's point of view.

Wait a minute

Wait a minute. We haven't discussed the forecast yet.

Shouldn't we postpone?

Shouldn't we postpone the decision till Lindsay is back from her office?

Not so fast

Not so fast. We haven't finished our coffee yet!

Take it easy

Take it easy. What's the hurry? We have the whole weekend ahead of us.

35. MOVE THE MEETING FORWARD

Shall we proceed onto the next point?

Shall we proceed onto the next point? There are ten items on the agenda.

We need to solve it today

I don't have all morning

I don't have all morning. Make up your minds now!

Hurry up

Hurry up please. We can't waste more time on this.

36. CHANGE TOPICS FORMALLY

Incidentally, may I mention that?

Incidentally, may I mention that Hutchinson called today?

An alternative to consider

An alternative point to consider is the effect of this decision on our image.

While we are on the subject

While we are on the subject, I'd like to inform you that Jo is ill today.

On quite another matter

On quite another matter, battery life is still a major concern.

Could we now deal with?

Could we now deal with our plans for the Geneva summit?

37. CHANGE TOPICS LESS FORMALLY

By the way

By the way, it rained quite a bit yesterday.

Can we move onto?

Can we move onto our plans for dinner?

To bring up something else

To bring up something else, Max came to the office yesterday.

Now is time to

Now is the right time to talk about the new site. Tomorrow will be too late.

There's another issue we have to deal with

There's another issue we have to deal with – losses in the chemistry area.

38. CHANGE TOPICS INFORMALLY

I don't want to

I don't want to talk about football anymore. What are the plans for tonight?

It has just crossed my mind

It has just crossed my mind that Billy won't be able to come.

Changing subject

Changing subject, did you see Dudley yesterday?

Before I forget

Before I forget, how did Jack and Edith get on?

We've had enough

We've had enough of you talking about golf. What's the next point?

39. INTERRUPT VERY POLITELY

Er

Er, I think Joan is already here.

Sorry

Sorry, I never meant that.

Actually

Actually it was Geraldine who arrived late.

Excuse me

Excuse me, that seems taking matters too far.

May I have a word?

May I have a word? Nothing will stop the Mirror from running the story.

40. INTERRUPT POLITELY

Can I make a comment?

Can I make a comment? Mike was never involved in this.

May I come in here?

May I come in here? In fact, new laptops tend to be lighter, not heavier.

May I interrupt?

May I interrupt? I do have something relevant to disclose.

Could I say something?

Could I say something? If we want lower costs we need other suppliers.

Sorry to interrupt

Sorry to interrupt, but someone's phone is ringing.

41. INTERRUPT STRONGLY

Please listen to me

Please listen to me. It is important.

Do you mind if I jump in here?

Do you mind if I jump in here? I have to leave in five minutes.

I don't mean to intrude, but

I don't mean to intrude, but Stephen is not exactly reliable.

Can I add something?

Can I add something here? WTR Ltd should be able to supply us.

What are you trying to say?

What are you trying to say? I never accepted that.

42. INTERRUPT VERY STRONGLY

What are you getting at?

What are you getting at? Can't you see you'll only cause trouble?

Will you let me speak?

Will you let me speak? You are not the only person here.

Won't you let me give an opinion?

Won't you let me give my own opinion? I demand the right to speak.

Will you shut up for a minute, please?

Will you shut up for a minute, please? Don't you see everyone's fed up?

Can't you be quiet?

Can't you be quiet for a moment, for goodness sake?

43. AVOID INTERRUPTION

Perhaps we could leave that for later on?

Perhaps we could leave that for some other moment.

Will you let me finish?

Will you let me finish? You can object when your turn comes up.

I'd rather go on with

I'd rather go on with the current subject as we're a bit pressed for time.

Would you so be so kind as to let me finish?

Would you be so kind as to let me finish? I never interrupted your speech.

Would you mind not interrupting?

Would you mind not interrupting all the time?

44. ALLOW INTERRUPTION

Let's hear

Let's hear what Virginia has to say.

You've found

I think you've found the right solution.

47. DISAGREE PARTIALLY

I see your point of view, but

I can see your point of view, but winter is very cold in Montreal.

You might be right. However

You might be right. However, how can we tell for sure?

You have a good point, though

You have a good point, though Anthony is also right.

You could say that, but

You could say that, but who buys ice cream in winter?

Up to a point I agree. Nevertheless

Up to a point I agree. Nevertheless, I feel James has a sounder approach.

48. DISAGREE STRONGLY

I don't agree

I don't agree with you at all.

You're not right.

You're not right. Everything you said is wrong.

It's not what I believe

It's not what I believe and I will not back you.

I don't think so

I don't think so. Why don't you change strategy?

That's not such a good idea

That's not such a good idea. Fiona tried it and it never worked.

49. DISAGREE LESS STRONGLY

I've got another

I've got another point of view.

I wouldn't do that

I wouldn't do that. I would never sell a car to buy a motorcycle.

I'm afraid I can't see it

I'm afraid I can't see it that way.

Don't get me wrong

Don't get me wrong but no one here shares your views.

I'm not so keen

I don't mean to be rude but Bahia is north of Rio, not south.

This may sound

This may sound offensive but it is not my intention to hurt anyone.

Correct me if I'm wrong

Correct me if I'm wrong but I think cell phone sales have remained flat.

I hate to bring this up

I hate to bring this up, but Brigitte never studied Marketing.

There's another way

Once you've gone through the first step you must tackle the second one.

When that is over

The last stage is the easiest.

At the end

At the end you should check that the cables are well connected

To finish
